ISAAC BARTH TU BE THE DEMOCRA WILLRUNFOR GOVERNORSHI

New Mexico Man to Seek the Honor Unless Governor McDonald Chooses to Make the Race Again; Hubbell Out on His Ranch Shearing Sheep, Like Bursum: Andrews and Catron Out of the State.

As the process of eliminate goes on, this proposed candidate being found to fail to measure up to requirements, while another proves to be not available, it begins to look that state senator Isaac Barth, of Albuquerque, will be the next Democratic candidate for governor of the state of

New Mexico.

Of the state candidates whom The Herald has sought to interview with reference to the political situation in New Mexico, there is positively "hosbody home." This applies to "upstairs—" in fact, it goes from cettar to garret.

Hom O. Bursom, candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, has been at his sheep ranches, 40 miles and more distant from Socorro, for nearly three weeks. Judge M. C. Mechem, of Socorro, mentioned in connection with the nomination for the supreme court, is over in the third indictal district, holding court for indire K. L. Medler, at Carrinozo, Max M. Montoya, Democrat. treasurer of Socorro county, and being urged by a number of friends to make the race, for stafe treasurer, was cut on our stanch, with his return a matter of conjecture.

steks to retain.

Andrews in the East.

William M. Andrews, another seeker after the senatorial honor, via the lepublican convention, also is numbered among those not present. They said at the Alvarado hotel: "Mr. Andrews has gone east. He has been sone for some time, and we have no means of knowing when he will return to Albuquerque."

By some it has been said that when andrews returns from the east, he will have something definite to announce as to how trong his candidacy will be. Those who are supporting his candidacy are in position to make guithoritative statements as to the strength of his following and the convention. Andrews in the East.

Carron and Burth Away. Carron and Barth Away.

That was not the end of the disappointments. "Yes, Mr. Barth is in town now, You will find him in his office," said a citizen of Albuquerque, But Mr. Barth was not in his office. "He left this morning for Grants." said T. J.Mabry, his law partner, "He will seturn tonight, bur will be here other a short time, between trains and will be too busy to come to the office. He leaves again for Balon, to make the address to the gradualing class of the high school. But even this was not all. Senstor Thomas B. Catron has left the state, returning to Washington. On account of most important matters now pending in the senate, he probably will not return to New Mexico until comparatively a short time before the Republican state convention is beld.

"Mr. Barth will be a candidate under two conditions," said Mabry. "The first is that he will not, under any discumstances, run in opposition to governor McDonald, in the event that governor McDonald desires to be remonitanted. He feels that governor McDonald has been horsest and comscientious and that he has made a good executive, and therefore is entitled to the nomination for a second term, if he cares to make the race. The second condition is that he will not make a fight, within the party, to accure the homination. In other words, he is hot yet more than a recopive candidate. However, if the party wants him, and the convention gives the nomination to him, he will make a thorough and determined campaign."

Hubbell is out on his ranches. How far are his ranches from Albuquerque. "Something over 160 miles." "Not definitely. If he sinys until the shearing is finished, he will not be hack about the middle of the week. This was the dislague which occurred at the single of first of June. Otherwise he may possibly he hack about the middle of the week. This one of the largest sheep owners in the state, and when he gets out and submerges himself in the work, nobody knows when he will return to Albuquerque. Not that he may be back about the middle of the week. He is a candidate for the sensorial togs which Thomas R. Catron is new wearing, and which the sensor tenstously and vigorously seeks to retain.

"An able man, senator Barth has a large personal following, and his record is unassailable," was the recommendation given to him by ancother. In 1911, when he was elected to the state senate, he received 2861 votes, which was a remarkable vote for Bernalille county to—give to a Democrat."

One of the Albuquerque daffies has given its unqualified endersement to Harth's candidacy. It expresses the editorial belief that he is entirely fit and qualified, and the best man available.

What of McDonald?

What of McDonald?

As shown in Harth's position, as siven by Mabry, his candidacy is altogether null and void, provided governor McDonald shows any incumation to seek the office again. One theory advanced is that the governor will be allowed to retire to private life and give his attention to his business interests, which have been much neglected for more than four years. Those who are close to the governor may that this is his real preference. It is declared that it be should not neek renomination, there will be a strong movement to jut him back into the middle as chairman of the state central committee and give him cearse of the campaign. Another suggestion advanced is that be will be made national committeeman, to succeed A. A. Jones, who unquestionably will be the nomines for the senate. These two ideas advanced as to the work governor McDonald will be asked to assume are new, insofar as published shatements are concerned, but my informant declares that the source is reliable and that these plans are being carefully and carnestly considered. What of McDonald?

If you find yourself "left out" because of a poor skin, and want a clear, fresh complexion, use Resinol Soap at least once a day. Wash thoroughly with a warm, creamy lather of it, then rinse the face with plenty of cold water.

It does not often take many days of such regular care with Resinol Soap to show an improvement, because the Resinol medication sociaes and refresher the skin, while the perfectly pure soap is cleansing it.
